

Strategy #11

Write a Newspaper Report

| | |
|---|--|
| Headline Write the headline you would use to capture your audience's attention. | |
| Lead Create an opening to capture interest, suspense or surprise. | |
| Body – 5W Plus – Who, What, Where, When, Why, How | |
| Who are the characters/people involved? | |
| What was the problem, issue or event?(be specific) Use transitions to explain. (First, after that, next, then, soon, immediately, after, at last, finally.) | |
| Where did the problem, issue or event incident take place? | |
| When did the problem, issue or event take place? | |

| | |
|--|--|
| Why did the problem, issue or event take place? | |
| How did people feel about the problem, issue or event? | |
| Direct Comment (Quote) Include a comment someone might have said about the incident. (or create one for this article if one is not available) Tell who said it. Place it in a key spot in the news article. | |
| Ending - Create a suitable ending to conclude the newspaper article. | |
